

'Getting the Word Out: D&P and Social Media'

April 30 – May 2, 2010

You are cordially invited to attend the 2010 Development and Peace Saskatchewan Keewatin – Le Pas Regional Assembly to be held at St. Thomas More College, on the beautiful University of Saskatchewan campus in Saskatoon.

The gathering will be from supper on Friday April 30th to noon on Sunday May 2. See next page for details of the programme.

Our presenters:

Raphael Arens is a landed immigrant of Canada – originally from Germany. He studied "Intercultural Conflict Management" in Berlin and spent several years involved in the L'Arche Community in Toronto. He is now working on a Social Media Pilot Project for Development and Peace.

Genevieve Talbot is a Development and Peace Program Officer for Cambodia, Philippines and Sri Lanka and is based in the Montreal office. She holds an MA in international affairs, and worked abroad for a couple of years (Ecuador and Philippines) and for different organizations (UN, local NGOs...) but found a home when she joined D&P in March 2007.
